

A SERVICE CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF
VALERIE BRADDOCK MCCALL

DECEMBER 26, 1968 ~ JULY 23, 2024

PSALM 23 (KJV)

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name.

*Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

*And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.*

*And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.*

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

Valerie Braddock McCall

DECEMBER 26, 1968 ~ JULY 23, 2024

Valerie Braddock McCall, 55, passed away peacefully at home in Dallas, Texas, on July 23, 2024.

Valerie was born in Saginaw, Michigan, to Margaret and LC Braddock. Born and raised in Michigan, Valerie attended Vassar High School with the class of 1987. Later in life, she made her home in Dallas, which kept her close to her favorite things: the Dallas Cowboys; her beloved daughter, Cynthia; and her grandson, M.J., who affectionately knew her as his “Honey.”

God gifted Valerie with a fun-loving spirit and caring nature that left a mark on many hearts. Her love and appreciation for family not only extended to her relatives, but also countless friends and godchildren whom she loved and claimed as her own. Valerie enjoyed nothing more than good jokes and having a good time, which gave her family and friends a lifetime of cherished memories.

She leaves behind many loving relatives: daughter Cynthia (Marvin) Washington; brothers Spiva (Carla) Haynes, Allen Braddock, and Launce Braddock; sister Anita Ann (Dan) Patrick; and grandson Marvin “M.J.” Washington, Jr.; along with a host of treasured family and friends, including her dearest friend Tamala Lambert, who she loved like a sister.

Valerie is preceded in death by parents Margaret and LC Braddock, sister Sylvia Denise Braddock, and brother Van Braddock.

A memorial service will be held Sunday, November 24, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. EST, at Peachtree Road United Methodist Church in Atlanta, Georgia, for all friends and family. A livestream will be available, and an in-person reception will follow the service.

The family extends deep gratitude to the many loved ones who have offered their prayers and expressions of support and sympathy. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in memory of Valerie Braddock McCall to favorite charity, The Samaritan Inn of McKinney, Texas.
